

Couple Wed in Heaven Above Broadway

WED IN CLOUDS. About 4,000 feet above Central Park yesterday Dr. Harry C. McKowan, a college professor, and Ruth Hord, school teacher, were married. Photo shows the Rev. Leslie J. Barnett giving his blessing

EYEWITNESS. When Margaret Craven, actress (above), appeared in the West Side Court yesterday to lodge complaints against a restaurant proprietor, she exhibited a black eye in proof of her charge that she was beaten by him.

ALL ALONE. These children of Mrs. Anna Lopinto are facing starvation in their home at 269 Elizabeth St. The little ones are left alone with their mother in the hospital and their father out of work. (Graphic.)

Rushed Rudy to Doctor

WAS WITH RUDY on the night he was stricken. Marian Benda (above) today declared she was returning from a night club with Rudy when he suddenly collapsed in her arms. The screen sheik's manager insists Valentino was at his hotel when he became critically ill. (Photo Graphic.)

SLAIN CLERIC'S GARB. Prosecutor Simpson (above) is shown examining the clothes Dr. Edward W. Hall wore the night he was slain with Mrs. Mills. Detective Fred David identified the clothing as that worn by the dead pastor. (Graphic.)

AMERICAN "BEAUTY" ROSES. Ida May Chadwick and her "Six Dizzy Blondes" contributed the flowers they received from admirers yesterday to Rudolph Valentino, screen idol, now critically ill. They are at Keith-Albee's, Brooklyn.
